

Thanks for the Memories

Sung by "The California Brass" (Terry O'Heany, Laurie Naiman & Lloyd Silverman) at the Class Dinner for the 50th reunion of Meds 5T6. Lyrics mostly by Lloyd Silverman.

Thanks for the memories:

Of teachers who inspired,
Of whom we never tired,
You helped us see so far,
You made us what we are,
We thank you so much.

Thanks for the memories:

Of classmates whom we cherished,
Who since that time have perished,
We miss you so much.

As for the rest of us:

We linger here gregarious
Forgetting life's precarious
Reunions are the merriest
Just before they bury us.
It's good to stay in touch.

Thanks for the memories:

We settled far and near,
Launched a family and career,
And though we are pedantics,
We're also such romantics,
That's why we're back here.

Now, thanks for the mammograms,

The prostate tests that you
Find so refreshing too,
When Rogaine and Viagra
No longer really grab ya,
We thank them? ... not much!

Still ... thanks for the memories:

We never will forget,
However old we get,
The choice we don't regret,
The path of life it set
Adventures that we met,
Friendships we have kept,
We thank you so much.
